

Dr. Bethany Cox Snider

Bethany Cox Snider, MD, HMDC, FACP, FAAHPM, is Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer of Everent Health. She provides executive physician leadership for care delivery and medical strategy across the enterprise, leading system-wide innovation and best practices in hospice, palliative and primary care. Previously, she served as Chief Medical Officer of Hosparus Health, where she helped advance clinical programs and quality across the organization. Board-certified in internal medicine and hospice and palliative medicine, Dr. Snider trained at the University of Kentucky and completed a hospice and palliative medicine fellowship with Hospice of the Bluegrass (now Bluegrass Care Navigators). She partners closely with affiliates to accelerate the growth of sustainable programs, strengthen clinical quality, and expand access to high-value care for people living with serious illness.

She serves on the Board of Directors for the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine and is in her second term on the Kentucky Interdisciplinary Palliative Care Advisory Council, appointed by the Governor. She lives with her husband, John, and two children in Taylorsville, KY.
