

Margherita Labson

Margherita Labson, BSN, MSHSA

Margherita Labson, President and CEO, MCLabson Consultation and Education Services LLC, spent most of her 40+ year career working to advance safe, quality home-based care in primary medicine, home health, skilled home health and infusion, and palliative and hospice care. During her 25 years as Executive Director of Home Care at The Joint Commission, she led the development and launch of the first Certification for Home-Based Palliative Care providers and the first award-recognizing franchisors devoted to promoting quality home care services. She left to continue her post-graduate studies and now works as a strategic advisor to CHAP, as well as to other providers and associations to ensure compliance, promote the advancement of high-quality palliative care, hospice care, and home health care.