

Mindy Stewart-Coffee

Mindy Stewart-Coffee is a healthcare leader with over 20 years of experience in home and community-based care. Her career spans senior living, long-term care, home health, hospice, palliative care, and care management.

She holds a master's in public health and a strong academic foundation in entrepreneurship and healthcare management. Since joining Optum in 2022 through the Prospero Health acquisition, Mindy has advanced initiatives at the intersection of value-based care, post-acute services, and end-of-life care – areas she is deeply passionate about.

Her mission is to reimagine aging through integrated healthcare systems, community-based solutions, and technology. Mindy focuses on building programs that empower individuals to live well at home, with care that honors dignity, independence, and human connection – especially in life's later stages.
