

PRESS RELEASE

Teleios Announces Addition of Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice

Hendersonville, NC June 17, 2025: Teleios Collaborative Network (TCN) announced the addition of Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice (SSRCH) as a member. Since 2007, SSRCH has been providing compassionate care and quality of life to all those in need through its hospice and palliative care programs. Although most patients are served wherever they call home, they offer a beautiful inpatient center for patients when needed. In addition to these services, SSRCH also provides grief support to the community and offers the We Honor Veterans and No One Dies Alone programs.

Eric Tetzlaff, SSRCH CEO, said of joining, “Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice is excited to join Teleios Collaborative Network to actively engage in a dynamic range of services as we strive to provide the highest quality patient-centered care with solutions for the opportunities of today, as well as future challenges in a changing healthcare landscape. Our roots in not-for-profit hospice care as a founding member of the Wisconsin Hospice and Palliative Care Collaborative remain active and strong. This multi-dimensional partnership puts SSRCH in the best position to assure patient care and governance remain at the local level while providing access to innovation, solutions and scale.”

“We are so pleased to add Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice to our Teleios Collaborative Network as an Associate Member. We have already had the privilege to work with many of their leaders via Teleios Consulting Group and we already see the high quality of their leaders which makes them and their organization a great addition to TCN,” said Chris Comeaux, Teleios Collaborative Network President/CEO.

Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice (SSRCH) began its mission in 2007 to meet the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of patients with life-limiting conditions and their families. SSRCH is an independent, non-profit hospice and palliative care provider proudly serving the people of Wisconsin in Calumet, Fond du Lac, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Sheboygan and Washington counties

Teleios Collaborative Network is a nonprofit organization that has created a clinically integrated network that shares expert leadership, industry best practices, and resources with its member organizations. The goal of TCN’s collaboration is to harness the best of each hospice and enable the network to care for the patients and families in each community served. There are over 3,500 hospice patients and over 4,300 palliative patients in its network. TCN was founded in 2017 by Four Seasons and Carolina Caring and co-founded by AMOREM and Mountain Valley organizations. TCN is currently comprised of twenty member organizations across twelve states.

For more information about TCN, please visit teleioscn.org. To learn more about Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice please visit this link at <https://ssrhospicehome.org>.

###