

Tim Rogers

Tim Rogers is the President and CEO of the Association for Home and Hospice Care of North Carolina and the South Carolina Home Care and Hospice Association. Tim has held this position since 2001 and AHHC of NC assumed management of SCHCHA in 2004. Prior to returning to AHHC of NC in 2001, Tim served 9 plus years in the Home Care and Hospice industry. Starting at AHHC in 1992 as Director of Government Affairs, he also served in key C Suite positions for two large dually certified Medicare Home health and Hospices Agencies serving NC and SC from 1994-2001. Tim is Desautels Fellowship graduate of UNC Chapel Hill with a BA in Political Science and History. Additional work experiences include positions at State Employees Association of NC and the NC Bankers Association from 1983-1992.

Tim has served on numerous state and federal boards and committees throughout his career. He holds three Gubernatorial appointments in NC healthcare from Governors Jim Hunt Mike Easley and Roy Cooper. And just now under Governor Josh Stein as the industry representatives to the SHCC for home health and hospice- overseeing the state's Certificate of Need methodology and process. He was appointed to the SC CON committee by SC Governor Nikki Haley. Tim has just begun a 3-year term as Co-Chair of the Assembly of States and y virtue sits on the Board of the National Alliance for Care at Home in Washington, DC. Tim remains most proud of both his parents (and owes gratitude) distinctive combined, 78 years of community service and public sector experience in North Carolina as well as the fact the AHHC of NC is a national leader in Home Health, Home Care and Hospice agency membership with a combined 98% market share in home health and hospice.
